

SENIOR HIGH SANCTION RANGE CHART

NOTE: The shaded areas indicate a continuum of possible sanctions for certain misbehaviors. A less severe form of misbehavior would warrant a less severe sanction while more severe forms warrant more severe sanctions. District officials have the discretion to depart from the sanction chart in cases involving extenuating or exceptional circumstances. Discipline for students with disabilities may be subject to review by student support and/or IEP teams.

Exceptional Misconduct

The Tahoma School Board recognizes and accepts the serious nature and potential harm to individual students and the significant disruption of the educational process for the following acts. Additionally, the Ad Hoc Citizen's Committee recommends these sanctions for the following exceptional misconduct. Additional infraction(s), under Misconduct are accumulative on an annual school year basis from the date of the first violation. Exceptional Misconduct infractions are accumulated over a student's educational career. Exceptional misconduct means misconduct to 1) be of such frequent occurrence, notwithstanding past attempts of district personnel to control such misconduct through the use of other forms of corrective actions and/or punishment, as to warrant an immediate resort to short-term suspension, and/or 2) be so serious in nature and/or so serious in terms of the disruptive effect upon the operation of the school as to warrant an immediate resort to short-term suspension.
